

Volunteer Position Descriptions 2020

Administrative

Are you looking for a one-to-two day per week volunteer opportunity? Do you have administrative skills? If so, think about coming along side the great staff at Daniel where you could help improve the lives of kids and families. Job duties include mail, phones, copies, database research, etc. A minimum commitment of 6 months is requested. Level 2 background screening required. A $25 application fee is requested from the applicant to assist in covering screening cost. For more information, contact Julie at jcockley@danielkids.org

Skilled Labor

We are in need of experience, skilled contract laborers who want to volunteer on an as-needed and available basis in the areas of carpentry, flooring, painting and more; large and small projects available. For more information, contact Julie at jcockley@danielkids.org

Life Skills Coach

Do you have a heart to assist at risk or homeless teens grow into self-sufficient, productive citizens? Volunteers are needed to teach life skills such as how to: dress for success, build a resume, interview, manage finances, grocery shop on a budget, cook, common household chores and fixes, etc. For more information contact Julie at jcockley@danielkids.org
